I was angry I wasn't made a minister – Joe Wise

April 27, 2017

The First Deputy Speaker of Parliament Joe Osei-Wusu has revealed he flared up when President Akufo-Addo refused to appoint him as a minister.

The Member of Parliament for Bekwai told Starr Chat host Bola Ray he had always eyed to don the cloak of a Minister, but missing the train dampened his spirit.

"I was expecting to become a minister," Osei-Wusu stated on Wednesday.

"I was disappointed and angry," he confessed, adding "And I made it clear and wasn't expected to be a Speaker. But God has a way of letting you where you belong."

Osei-Wusu, who is the chairman of the Appointments Committee of Parliament, stated he eventually accepted the position of a first deputy speaker after three rounds of pleas from chiefs and elders of his hometown.
